Rappahannock Regional Criminal Justice Academy is a Virginia regional training academy in Fredericksburg and Middletown, Virginia which trains basic and veteran Law Enforcement Officers, Jail Officers and Communications Officers for more than sixty member agencies.

Rappahannock Regional Criminal

Justice Academy

Animal Control Basic

Pre-Employment Program

The Rappahannock Regional Criminal Justice Academy offers an Animal Control pre-employment training program. The program allows qualified individuals, who are not currently employed in the Animal Control profession, the opportunity to attend a 10 day Animal Control Basic Academy. Students who successfully complete the training receive an Academy certificate of participation making them potentially more competitive for employment in the Animal Control profession. Upon acceptance into the pre-employment program, students would be responsible for payment of tuition fees and other administrative costs associated with the training.

Attending the Animal Control pre-employment program does not guarantee employment. Students interested in and applying for a position within a public safety or law enforcement agency would be required to meet specific hiring and background investigation requirements applicable to the various law enforcement agencies.

Applicants seeking entry into the Animal Control Pre-Employment Program who are not employed or sponsored by a public safety agency or private company are required to undergo a background investigation.

Tuition and Associated Costs

Academy Tuition	$ 750.00
Application fee	$ 50.00
Background Investigation	$ 50.00

The $50.00 non-refundable Application Fee is payable to the Academy upon submission of the candidate's application. Additional costs to obtain court documents or other records as required by the applicant process are the responsibility of the student.

The Rappahannock Regional Criminal Justice Academy also offers the following Pre-Employment Academies:

- Law Enforcement Basic Academy
- Jail Officer Basic Academy
- Communications Basic Academy

Please review our website at www.rrcja.org for further information regarding these academies.
